

COOKIE POLICY

In order to provide relevant content, advertising, to increase the experience for our users, and for our website to work properly, we use cookies. These cookie data enable us to collect information about your visits and use of our pages.

Cookie files are recognised as temporary and permanent. Temporary cookies automatically delete their data after your visit to our page, while data of the permanent cookie files remain in your device for the time period specified in the cookie file.

We use these types of cookie files:

- Functional Cookies: These files are necessary for the basic operation of the websites and enable you to use their main functions, namely log-in and placing the orders.
- Analytics Cookies: These cookie files make it possible for us to follow and analyze your browsing throughout our webpage and thus enable us to enhance their personalisation and design.
- Advertising Cookies: These files help to aim the advertisement based on your interests and preferences.

You can change the cookie settings in your browser at any time. You can also disallow using cookie files in your browser, although in such a case not all the functions might work properly.

This cookie policy was last updated on February 10th, 2023. Independent Dog Records company reserves the right to update the cookies policy without prior notification. That is why we recommend keeping the policy monitored in order to be informed about the updates.
